At six the guests were asked to step into the dining room, where an exceedingly attractive table greeted their eyes, the color scheme being pink and green. Attached to each place card was a small bottle of rice. Over the table was a large wreath of smilax tied with a bow of pink ribbon, and the table itself was trimmed with smilax and pink sweet peas. ### LOSS OF GOOD WOMAN.

Mrs. A. T. Gay of South Ryegate Died, Having Sustained Shock.

South Ryegate, Sept. 11.—This village and surrounding community was sadly shocked when it was learned that one of its most estimable women had passed away after a little less than a week's illness. Mrs. A. T. Gay, one week ago last Friday was stricken while in her active duty, and since that time she did not speak and passed away at an early hour Friday morning. While she had not been feeling well for a short time before she had this shock, she had not given up or really called herself sick, but had remarked a few times that she did not feel well.

She was 48 years old. Her maiden name was Lizzie Whitehill, a daughter of Geo. Whitehill, who died in Groton some 40 years ago leaving a widow and 7 small children. Mrs. Whitehill later married Wesson Crown of this town, her children were reared and schooled from the Crown home as one family. Mr. Crown had also several children and the writer recalls many pleasant evenings he spent in this large double family, which was always in harmony and to a caller appeared to be one flock. Mrs. Gay left home and went to Massachusetts, where she formed an acquaintance with Mr. Gay, who was a Maine man. They were married some 20 years ago and soon moved to Vermont, where they lived in Groton and Ryegate. Mrs. Gay leaves a husband and two children, and her aged mother, who lived with her. The funeral was held on Sunday.

Mrs. Gay had one brother, Harvey Whitehill, in Groton, Mass., who was here and visited her about one week before she had the shock. Prof. Nelson Whitehill of White River Junction is also a brother and Chas. Whitehill of California, there is also a half-brother, Wesley Crown, in California. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in this hour of deep trouble.

Several people from Barre were over to attend the fair this week. J. R. McKenzie and Rev Burrows, Mrs. Anna Homes and daughter, J. B. Darling and on, Gordon A. Smith and several notables were on hand to help swell the crowd the last day, and as far as the writer has heard they all conducted themselves very nicely and we hope to see them again.

An Educational Power.

The unlimited educational value of moving pictures has been nowhere demonstrated so forcibly as in Lyman H. Howe's new program which will appear in Barre opera house on Thursday, Sept. 14. There is little in the length and breadth of this great world that escapes Mr. Howe's unremitting researches. He is an indefatigable investigator, a constant observer, and ever alert to the most absorbing events of national and international activities. These traits distinguish this great exhibition with an atmosphere found in no others and readily explain the phenomenal success it has achieved. Mr. Howe has compassed heights and depths of difficulties hardly realized by other exhibitors. So much that is extraordinary has been written of the notable proficiency and distinction of this masterful exhibition that it is universally regarded with singular interest.
